CLERGY CORNER

Rabbi Peter Levi

TEACHING THE HOLOCAUST FOR THE NEXT GENERATION

On Yom Kippur I asked our congregation to put joy at the center of Jewish life. I was concerned that for too long the Jewish community has put down our own tradition as meaningless or boring [just think of any Jewish joke and it is a self-deprecating one]. I was concerned that there has been an over-emphasis on victimhood and the Holocaust as the essence of our Jewish identity. I fully understand this was a hard statement for many in our congregation to hear from their rabbi.

At the same time I asked us all to pledge that in addition to finding and creating regular joy in our Jewish lives that we find an appropriate way to honor the Holocaust and ensure that the next generation knows our history and its lessons. I suggested the following model for a healthy embrace of the Holocaust:

- (i) As Jews, who suffered the worst during the Holocaust, we must make a priority to honor Yom HaShoah, Holocaust Memorial Day each year.
- (ii) As a congregation we pledge to read a Holocaust related book every year.
- (iii) As Jews, we have a special responsibility while we are here to make sure that genocide and ethnic cleansing never happens again on the face of the earth.

Now is our opportunity to make good on these pledges.

Need a Host? Want to Host? Passover Hospitality

If you would like to host one or more members of our Temple Beth El extended family who do not have anyone locally with whom to share Passover seder on the first night, please let us know.

Likewise, if you don't have a place to attend seder and would like to join others from your Temple Beth El family, please also let us know.

Either way, please contact Bonni (949/362.3999 ext 100 or bpomush@templebethelsoc.org.) We will work to match everyone up to make sure that "all who are hungry" have a place to come, eat, schmooze, and enjoy the mitzvah of the Seder meal as it was intended to be enjoyed: together.

Look out for Passover information & traditions at the end of March

1. You will get free juice and cookies.
2. You will lose weight – you'll be a pint lighter when you leave.
3. It's something you can do on equal footing with the rich and famous — blood is something money can't buy. It is something only one person can give to another
4. You will be someone's hero — you may give a newborn, a child, a mother or a father, a brother, or a sister another chance at life. In fact, you may help save up to three lives with just one donation.
5. It's the right thing to do.

Please join us for this life-saving mitzvah. It's easy. Just go online at www.givelife.org (use sponsor code "templeav") and make your appointment. Early appointments go fast, so sign up today! Questions? Contact Mollie Lazarus at 338-5075 or Amy Packer at 495-9638.

The Raymond Plotkin Campership Fund

The Raymond Plotkin Campership Fund that has now been established at TBESOC, as a living memorial to Raymond. Raymond loved going to the JCC camp in Houston, and his family felt it would be a fitting tribute to him, to assist children from our temple community who might not be in a position to attend camp. Sending our children to a Jewish camp is an important experience; a time for developing friendships, forming stronger bonds with Judaism and making lifelong memories.

The Campership Fund is available to TBESOC member children who will be attending URJ Camp Newman or Swig, Camp Hess Kramer or Hilltop, Merage JCC Camp Haverim or Camp Yofi. We invite you to apply by sending a letter sharing why it is important to you to go to camp. For those who have attended in the past, tell about your experience and why you want to go back. The deadline to apply is March 15th. Please send all letters attn: Al Welland.

Our SIMCHA Tree of Life is blooming at Temple Beth El SOC. Gold leaves are available to celebrate a special simcha in your family's life. The stones at the roots of the tree are symbolic of the 12 tribes of Israel.

The golden leaves and stones may be inscribed to highlight or commemorate such joyous events as births, weddings, anniversaries, graduations or to honor parents, family or friends. Share the joy by inscribing your family's simchas on our synagogue's Tree of Life – a permanent dedication to the meaningful happy events that touch our lives.

While you continue to create joy in your Shabbat and Holiday celebrations, also put the following in your calendar:

(i) Yom HaShoah-Holocaust Memorial Day is Sunday, April 11 this year. Our tradition is to light a yellow memorial candle. You can pick one up at the front desk starting in mid-March. The candles are being provided by Temple Beth El's Men's Club.

(ii) Read Art Spiegelman's Pulitzer Prize winning Maus: A Survivor's Tale. This is an autobiographical graphic novel recounting the struggle of Spiegelman's father to survive the Holocaust as a Polish Jew. To ensure that the next generation knows our history, please read this with your teens and join me for a discussion on Tuesday evening, April 13 at 7:30 pm.

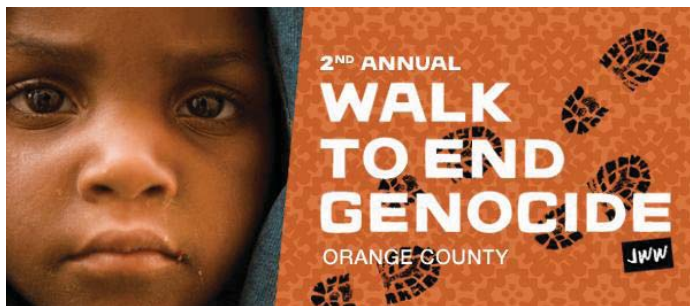

(iii) Join me and my family as we "Walk to End Genocide" on April 25, 2010. To join the Temple Beth El team, go to <http://www.jewishworldwatch.org/> and click on "Walk to End Genocide."

Why is the important now?

- The Darfur genocide is now in its 7th year, during which 400,000 innocent Darfuris have been systematically murdered with no end in sight.
- With 5.5 million killed and millions more facing brutal atrocities and displacement, the conflict in Congo requires our immediate attention.
- We are facing a world in which there are over 30 conflicts now at high risk of genocide.

We all have a special obligation not just to remember the Holocaust and teach it to the next generation, we must also be proactive to ensure such atrocities do not happen in our world. Aharon Appelfeld, Shoah survivor and renowned Israeli author, asked how one is to go on living a life with meaning after the Holocaust. He recalled the words of a doctor from a religious background who sailed to Israel with him in 1946: "We didn't see God when we expected him, so we have no choice but to do what He was supposed to do: we will protect the weak, we will love, we will comfort. From now on, the responsibility is all ours." The responsibility is indeed ours. Please join me. Remember the atrocities with me. Read a related book each year with me. And walk with me.

Happy Anniversary!
